BALLOTPEDIA'S PREMIUM RESEARCH SERVICES

The complex world of politics and public policy often leaves an endless list of research projects. At Ballotpedia, we understand what an endless to-do list might look like (we plan to one-day cover all 500,000+ elected officials).

Let us help you make some headway into that list, by hiring our team of expert researchers. We can turn projects around quickly, with high-quality research that doesn't add to your payroll bottom-line. Let your team focus on what they do best, and let our team focus on what we do best.

Our research team loves living inside of complex statutes, and crunching numbers throughout the day-and-night.
